Tune into Sharon High

[SHARON HIGH]

Rebecca Slobodkin, Evan Libeskind, Evan Rung, and Zach Hentoff pose for a picture while enjoying their lunch.

Nilufer Ali, Nancy Lohmiller, and Manal Kurdi are enjoying the great weather.

“So take the photographs and still-frames in your mind. Hang them on a shelf in good health and good times.”

-Green Day

“Don't you just love being a senior...we get to eat outside!”

One Last Time.....

How's your tan coming?....I don't know. This reading we had to do is getting in the way!

Proud to be an American.

Tune into Sharon High School's Marsengold premiering in May 2003. The program begins with the first nervous, confused days of high school and follows the student stars from freshman to senior year. Sports, plays, and proms add drama to the daily schedules that the teenagers and teachers follow, while insights into different classes and lunchroom conversations add quality to the story. Be sure not to miss the tales of friendship and growth over the past four years.

Friends

[FRIENDS]

Tricia Duffy and Stacy Cohen smile for the camera during lunch because the food's so good!

We've been here for each other throughout the years,
Through thick and thin, smiles and tears.
Our friends brought relief when the work got too tough.
Their laughter and fun made it bearable enough.
Now four years of high school is almost done.
But our journeys and friendships have only begun...

Jen Lobo, Rachel Blumenthal, and Rachel Dickens take one of their many study breaks to pose for the camera. Actually, do they ever take any?

"Audrey! I don't like you that way!"

Jen Rosen and Marissa McCue are so excited for lunch! Can't you tell?

"I'll be there for you when the rain starts to pour. I'll be there for you like I've been there before, and I'll be there for you 'cause you're there for me too."

-Friends theme, The Rembrandts

[STUDENT LIFE]

It's time to Tune in to Sharon High just once more.

It's been a fun-filled experience and never a bore.

From football to basketball and even Halloween, our school spirit could always be seen.

In all of our clubs, sports, and extracurricular stuff,

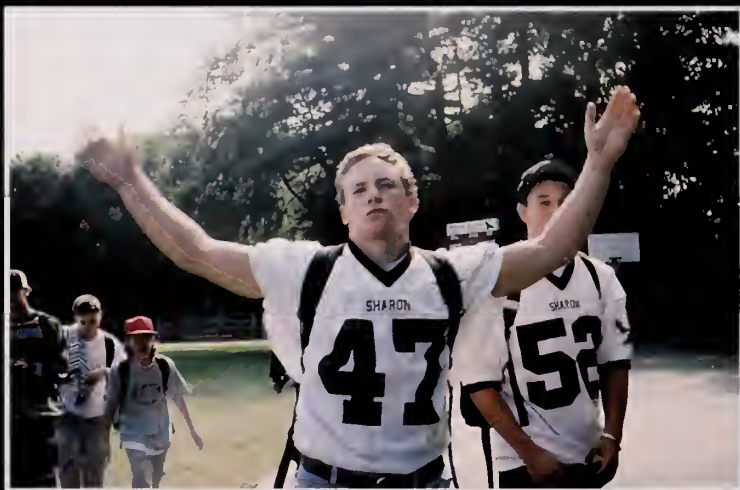

We were kept busy, of our favorite activities, we couldn't get enough.

At dances, semi-formals, and of course the prom, too,

The dance floor was rocking the entire night through.

So before you change the channel and move on from SHS.

Take one last look at our Student Life and the times we enjoyed best.

Rob, say that again?

"Don't bother me, this is due next period!"

Underclassmen,
"Say Cheese!"

"Days Of Our Lives..."

at Sharon High

High school expects teens too early to rise,
Little sleep, no coffee-let's compromise.
Yet we do learn in spite of it all,
But sleep, good friends are our beckon call.
We take gym, music, drama and such,
Sharon High really offers so much.
There's something to do for everyone,
But a later start in the morning would make school more fun.
Daily study halls would really be great,
To catch up on homework so it wouldn't be late.
We bump backpacks in hallways,
We often complain,
No time to chit chat is a common refrain.
Yet tomorrow will come,
And we'll still arrive
At the doors of Sharon High School-for these are the "Days Of Our Lives....."

Don't look Russell, or he'll punch
you.

Like sand through an hour glass...

Look out Ivies, here we come.

Misha, Ben, Peter, Jeff and Avi take a break from Psych to ponder the meaning of life.

Okay, guys. Let's take it from the top!

Hey, does anybody know how this thing works?

"Jason, I get a warm, fuzzy feeling when you're near."

“Our Ordinary Hero”

Dedication

“Everyday when we walked into class we knew he had a good story to tell.”

-Eliza Carroll

“He always held your interest in class while he taught at the same time.”

-Allison Briggs

“He has shared with us the joy of learning and the sacredness of friendship.”

-Mr. John Collins

“He was a great teacher because he made us evaluate things, and he had the greatest snouts of wisdom.”

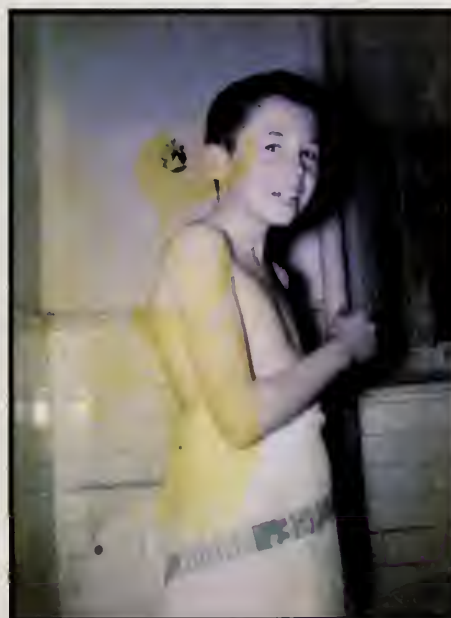

-Lauren Goldstein

and Appreciation

"Is everyone in good spirits today?" A common question asked to start off each one of his classes, without the appropriate response, the class cannot start. If an observer happened to walk by on any given day, he or she might find Mr. Murray's class engaged in a lively game of "Bop It" or having a party with Nantucket Nectars, supplied by Mr. Murray himself. The common misconception at Sharon High School is that all the great teachers are found teaching upperclassman; however, Mr. Murray is a hidden treasure enjoyed by only the freshmen and sophomores.

Mr. Murray can be spotted in many places besides the classroom. He can be found at numerous sporting events cheering on our Sharon Eagles. You see him at track meets and baseball games, always wearing his infamous straw hat. He can also be found raking leaves in the courtyard or planting flowers around the school to help beautify the grounds of Sharon High School. Mr. Murray is the advisor of the B'Cus club, which cleans up around the school and town.

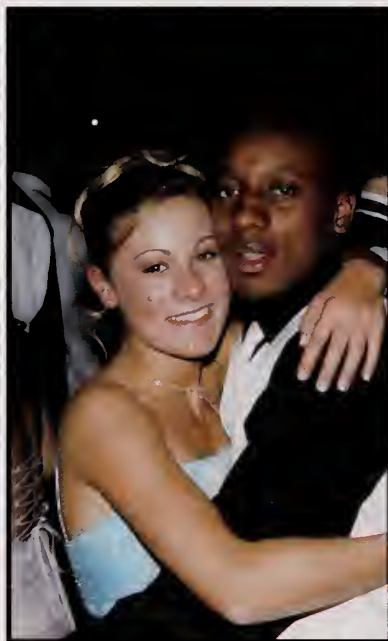

Every year Mr. Murray searches for ordinary heroes, people who help make Sharon a better community. Mr. Murray and Ms. Waltuck, a fifth grade teacher at Heights Elementary School, are the heads of a program called "Ordinary Heroes," which honors local heroes for their generous efforts on behalf of Sharon. Mr. Murray goes well above and beyond the call of duty by participating in many activities outside the classroom. He is one who enjoys his career and it is obvious to all that he receives great joy from teaching adolescents. As quoted by Sharon High alumnus Rachel Lerner, "Every year Mr. Murray tries to find ordinary heroes, and he has yet to realize that he is one himself."

MR. MURRAY

Happily Ever After...

Junior Prom Class of 2003

Junior Prom

Class of 2002 Junior Prom really had it going on.

The boys looked so good that night;
the girls' dresses fit just right.

Fairytale castles and frost covered tables took us to a world of fantasy and fables.

The Chinese food was too good to be true;
many thanks to Alice and her wonderful crew.

The night was filled with fun and laughter, making memories that will last
"Ever After"!

Winter Wonderland

Class of 2003

Semi-Formal 2001

Was countless hours of laughter and fun.
We asked a partner a year in advance
Just to make sure we'd have a date for the dance.
The cafeteria was frosted white.
The dance floor was bumpin' the entire night.
The theme was Winter Wonderland
Which lived up to everyone's demand!

On March 23, 2002

Girls needed dresses, shoes, an "up-do."
Boys needed suits, and easily they were done.
The semi-formal surely was a night full of fun.
There was food, laughter, dancing, and more,
Monkeys, parrots, and tigers galore.

Our shoes came off, and music went on.
Before we knew it, the whole night was gone.

Semi-formal 2002 was really a blast
A night to remember, although it's sadly in our past.

Jungle Fever

Class of 2004

Making a Difference

It is part of the Sharon High School tradition for students to participate in various community service activities throughout the year. At every school dance, canned goods are collected to be donated to a local food pantry. Many clubs and other groups participate in community service as well by doing things such as visiting shelters and raising money for charities. Other school-wide events include Halloween for the Hungry, the annual Blood Drive, elementary tutoring, and so much more. SHS is very proud to be proactive in helping our community.

"After collecting all the cans I could and dropping them off in the school foyer, I was amazed at the hundreds of bags of cans already collected. Each was filled to the top! I knew I had made a difference. Every can counts."
-Abra Berkowitz

Pie in the Sky is the major fundraiser done by Community Servings which is a non-profit organization located in Boston. For every pie sold, a family of four living with HIV or AIDS is fed. Last year we raised $1,660 which fed 83 families. This year will be the fourth time Sharon has participated in this community service project.

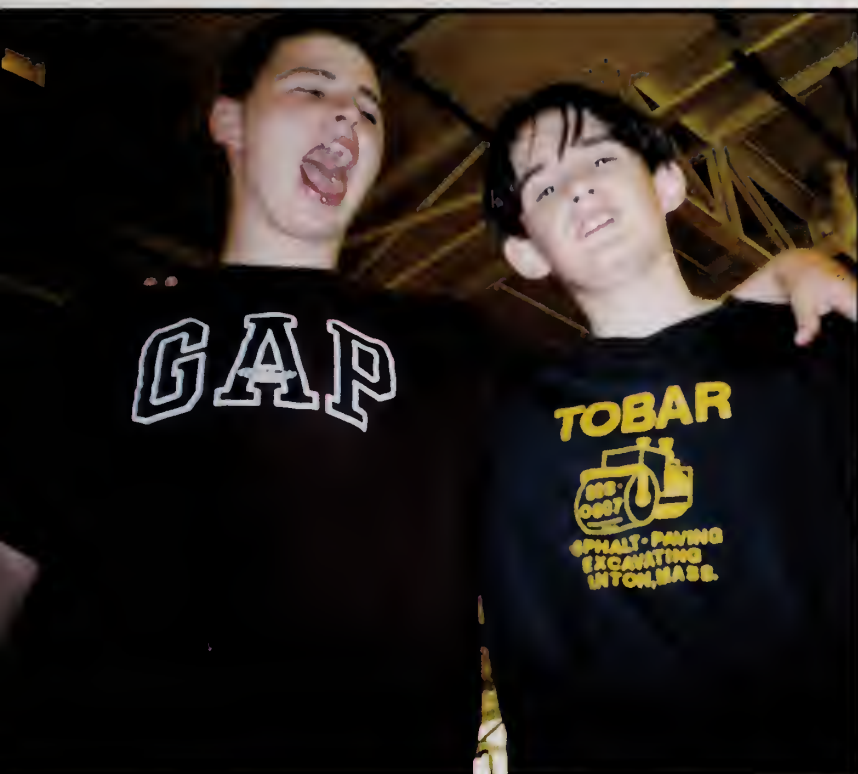

"It makes you realize how much the little things in life mean to others and can brighten up their day."
-Heather Fortuna

Growing Pains

As long as we've got each other,
We've got the world
spinning right in our hands,
Baby rain or shine,
All the time,
We've got each other,
Sharing the
laughter and love.
-Growing Pains

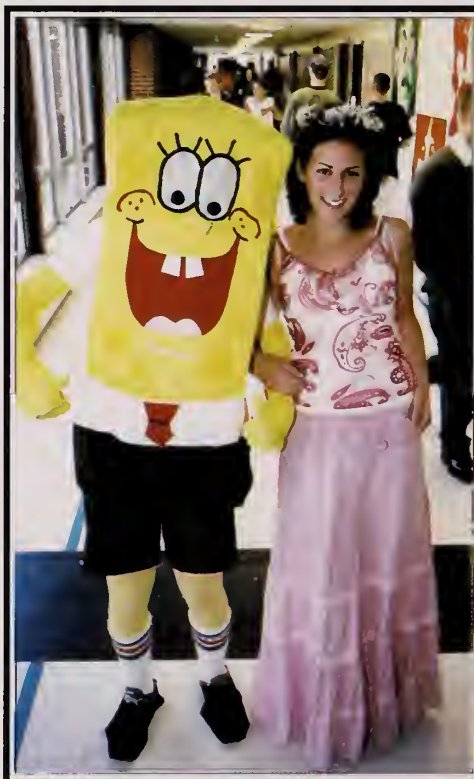

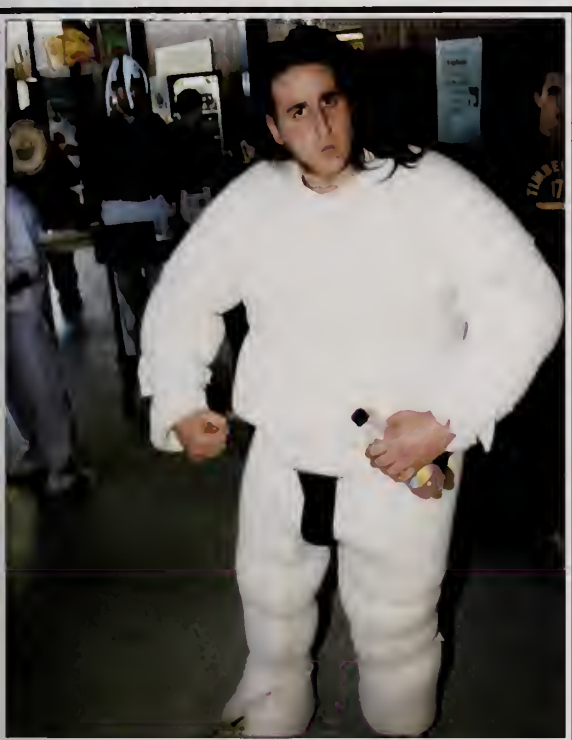

Together as the class of 2003, we have tuned in to elementary school, middle school, and our last episode: high school. Through the years we have grown together, each one of us evolving with the start of every new show. At times growing up was hard, but we survived. Together we dealt with broken hearts, bad grades, family problems, and life in general. We will soon be moving on to a whole new series of our lives. One last time let's rewind to where it all began. Let's watch the re-runs of "our show" to remember how it all started.

Halloween

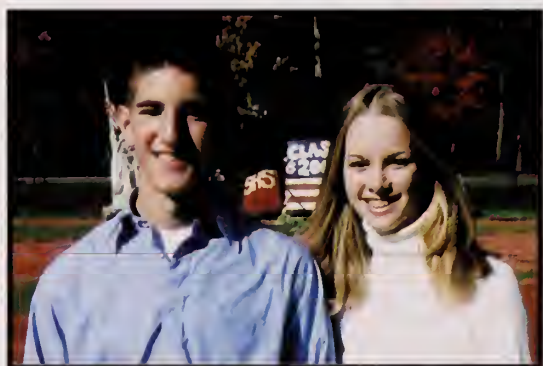

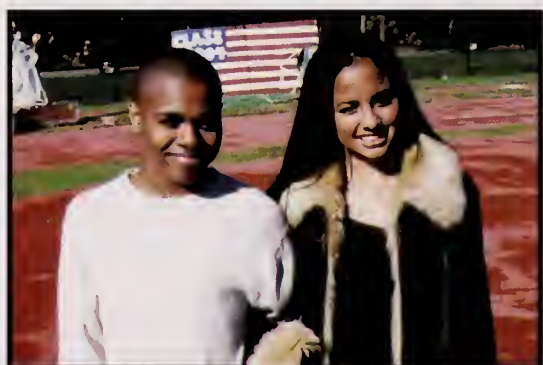

Just about everyone, students and teachers alike, get into the spirit of this holiday. Clever costumes run the gamut from individuals dressing as Sponge Bob and a Sumo Wrestler, to groups dressing like the New England Patriots and the Birds and the Bees. Each hallway is decorated by different grades and covered with candy to entice the judges to vote in their favor. The day ends with a fun, school wide assembly. Here awards are presented to the most creative costumes, in a variety of categories, judged by the teachers.

Homecoming

Maroon and gold dominated the scene on October 26, 2002.
Games, contests and raffles, trust me there was a lot to do.
The Sharon Eagles and the Canton Bulldogs put on a great game;
The Bulldogs were not easy to tame.
As halftime came around,
Where were the students to be found?
Near the floats was the place to be,
Having the best one was the key.
The students awaited the winner of the contest...

Even though the Sophomores won, the Seniors' was still the best. The freshmen king and queen, Jared Ballin and Marielle Blansfield, were crowned. Sophomores Charles Seaberry and Kylee Decoste were throne bound. Richard Maidman and Courtney Smith represented the class of 2004. When the senior court, Tom Subitis, Fallon Lev, Marty Kirshner, Rebecca Friedman, Scott Seneow and Hillary Conroy, was announced, the crown responded with a roar. Derek Bieringer and Molly Landman were named King and Queen, who else would it be?
Best wishes to Derek from the class of 2003.

Top 5 Reasons Why It's Great to be a Senior.

Huh???

5. The Senior Parking Lot: while juniors have to walk miles to school, and underclassmen are forced to take the bus or be dropped off by their parents, seniors get to arrive at school in style.
4. Senior Privledges: being allowed to come to school late and leave school early is always a plus.
3. Ending School in May: while all the underclassmen are still in school during the months of May and June, Seniors are out enjoying the great weather.
2. Senior Prom: good bye gym and cafeteria, hello limo and Westin Hotel.
1. Graduation: the feeling of knowing one will never have to take another test or sti through another class at SHS is amazing.

Three Amigos...

Some Thoughts on Senior Year...

An old man once told me that being a senior in high school is like being a senior in life. You make fun of 14-year-olds, don't get enough sleep, and complain about everything.
-Pete Ostrovski

It's pretty fun, aside from all the homework, projects, tests, college applications, lack of sleep, and no time...come to think of it, it doesn't really sound fun anymore.

Survivors

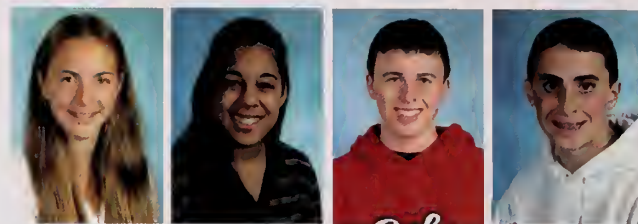

Underclassmen have three years of surviving the halls, the classes, and the extra-curricular activities at Sharon High School. Freshmen experience their first pep rally and prepare for their first round of exams. Sophomores are relieved that they survived their first year of high school and look forward to their Sophomore Semi. Juniors are excited to attend their Junior Prom at the end of a stressful and taxing year. At the end of three years, underclassmen are thankful to be Survivors.

SPORTS

As each season rolls around,
On the fields are where the students can be found.

Each team creates a sense of unity and pride;
Many laughs are shared on the field and during the long bus rides.

Daily practices perfect their skills;
Their afternoons are filled with numerous drills.
Team dinners the night before a big game are a ball;

Secret psyche posters fill the school halls.
For seniors this year is the last to sport maroon and gold,

One last chance to go out strong and bold.

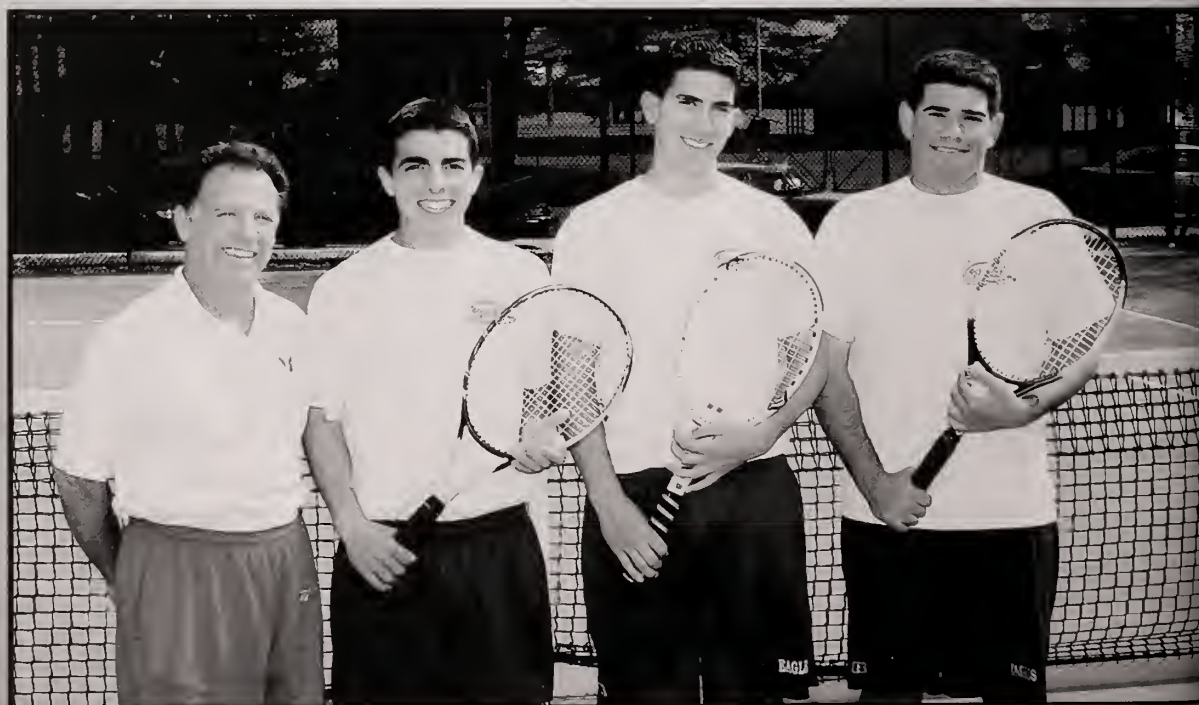

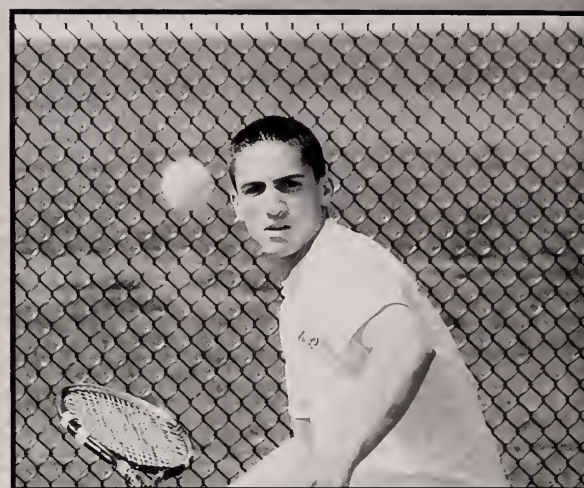

Always striving for the best;

The Eagles never rest.

The Boys' Tennis team had another great season. Once again, the team won the Hockomock League, with a 15-1 league record. The team's winning streak ended during a grueling match at Canton; however, the team finished strongly under the leadership of senior tri-captains Mike Thaler, Mark Gerner, and Andrew Gordon. After many years of playing in Division II, the team was able to move up to Division I. The team will return five of its starting seven players next year, including talented captains Jay Blair, Mike Stern, and Ami Ziff. Congratulations on another great season.

Serving Up An Ace

The Girls' Tennis team had an amazing season, with a record of 15-3. Captains Amanda Fine, Jess Garnitz, and Sarah Luchner led the team to the quarter-finals in the state tournament. Everyone's hard work and effort at both practices and matches contributed to the overall success of the team. The team would like to thank Coach Banno for all of his dedication to the team this season. Good luck next year!

It was a very successful season for the Track team, led by senior captains Kevin Bright, Greg Tanzer, Rachel Bloom, and Jen Walter. The team consistently performed—and competed very well. A number of athletes qualified for the All-States Meet, including Meredith Renke, Rachel Bloom, Jen Walter, Neal Freed, and Kevin Bright, who also went on to compete at the New England Meet in the 300-meter hurdles. Jen Walter was the Class C champion in the mile race, and Katie O'Malley placed ninth at States in the heptathlon. Thanks to the coaches for a memorable time this season!

Keep Your Eye on the Ball

The Girls' Softball team had a lot of fun this season. Led by senior captains Paige LaMarche, Laura Giorgio, and Amanda Iverson, the team worked hard in practice to improve their skills and abilities. The girls were able to achieve their long-awaited goal this year, winning a game and breaking their long-running losing streak in the tough Hockomock League. A special thanks to Coach Regan for his dedication and help this season. Good luck next year!

The Sharon High School Baseball team got off to a slow start this season but was able to pick up the pace as the season progressed. Led by seniors Ben Polimer, Matt Kline, Matt Brown, Greg Schantz, and Matt Aschaffenburg, as well as the ever great coaching by Coach Peckham, the team was in playoff contention for most of the season. Although the final standings were not as pleasing as they were hoped to be, the team still enjoyed a fun season. With strong support from numerous underclassmen, the Eagles are sure to have another successful season next year.

Girls With Sticks

The Girls' Lacrosse team made a lot of progress this season. Led by captains Heather Bernstein and Jaime Gassman, the girls worked hard to improve their stick work, endurance, and defensive techniques. Off the field, the girls became very close through their various team bondings and dinners, which only helped them play better with each other at practice and during games. Although the team had a rough beginning and a few messy injuries, they ended the season on a great note. The team looks forward to another successful season.

What an incredible year it has been for the Sharon High School Varsity Cheerleaders! The squad was led by co-captains Courtney Bloom and Laura Goscinak. They worked extremely hard to prove that cheerleading IS A SPORT. In November the squad competed in a cheer and dance competition, and although we did not place very high, we enjoyed every minute of it. Even though we have fun, we are a very dedicated squad, attending every football game even when the weather was bad. We came a long way this past year, and we stand as a perfect example for what one can achieve with a little trust and teamwork. Unfortunately, the squad will be losing eight seniors next year: Courtney Bloom, Laura Gosinack, Karis Antokl, Fallon Lev, Razieh Alavi, Rebecca Freidman, Alyssa Goode and Amy Wolbarst. The seniors are going to miss the underclassmen dearly, but they will be cheering them on from no matter where they are next year. The seniors would like to wish next year's squad the best of luck, and whatever you do, don't forget to "Bring It!"

A Hole In One

* Denotes captain

The golf team successfully returned to the South Sectional playoffs for the second year in a row! The teams' 9-7 record was due to key performances by the tri-captains and underclassmen, along with inspired coaching by Mr. VanVaerenwyck. Mike Stern, Greg Wise, and Evan Hahn all showed leadership, by example, to the team throughout the season. Underclassmen Andrew Dunning, Ian McMahon, and Dan Aschaffenberg also helped by having low scores. Under the leadership of next year's captain, Jason Minsk, along with a promising freshman class, they will strive towards a winning season.

Getting A Foot In

Under new coach Tosh Forde, the Girls' Soccer Team went through an inspiring season in 2002. Despite a 1-16-1 record, the spirit and enthusiasm that surrounded this group of athletes made it a successful year. Captains Danielle Costello, Dana Cohen, and Lauren Bernstein led the team admirably, and the Eagles also got remarkable leadership from their other three seniors: Meg Coakley, Lani Fenderson, and Lauren Mazzella. Everyone was sad to see the season end, but they are looking forward to more fun and improved season in 2003.

The Sharon High Boys' Soccer team went through a difficult season. The team had many developing underclassmen who should lead the team to a victorious next season. As always, the team was instructed by head coach Alan Howie and assistant coach Barry Kaye. Scott Selenow, Lucas Moraes, and Adam Golstein were the team's inspirational captains, who greatly helped the new members of the team.

Getting in the Game

The Sharon Girls' Volleyball Team finished this year with a 14-4 record, the best record a Sharon volleyball team has ever had. Their record won them a buy on the first round in the tournament and a home game against Bishop Feehan for the second round. Sharon put up a good fight but was defeated. The girls were lead by co-captains Julie Magby, Suzanne Schwartz, and Vida Ziaugra, and by their coach, David Phillips. A special thanks goes out to Mr. Zeman, also known as "Z", for always being there for us and helping us out. The team had a great year and should be very proud. Good luck to the team in the future.

See You At The Finish Line

The 2002 cross-country season was a very memorable one as our younger runners stepped up and we gained new runners with potential. Our senior captains, Courtney Darcy, Rachel Nagle, Becky Walter, Dan Amato, Aaron Lifland, and Andy Baseman, proved to be strong team leaders along with our junior captains Audrey Levine, Eric Greenspan, and Steven Bright. With the encouragement of Mr. Ragona and Mr. Mandell, we finally connected as a whole and this renewed team spirit manifested itself at our practices, meets, and social gatherings. Our team participated in Class C and the Coaches' Invitational meets, and freshman Emily Tran advanced to the All-State meet. The season was full of fun, success, and team spirit.

Fun is more fun when you're winning! The Sharon Girls' Field Hockey team ended their season with an impressive 3-0 win against North. The team, led by first-year varsity coach, Peg Arguimbeau and captains Lindsay Smith, Jen Hallett, and Audrey Lamb, had a rough start. However, the team did come together as the season progressed with a brand-new offensive lineup. Not just a team but more a family, the Eagles pulled through the season with a 5-9-2 record. Good luck to the girls next year. Hooty-hoo! "Ain't no mountain high enough...."

Our Future Patriots

After starting the season 3-1, the Eagles played some tough games, finishing the season 3-7. The offensive attack was based around line men: Captain Graham Johnston, Alex Karp, Adam Wayshak, Zach Brown, Billy Blau, and Peter Andrews. Receivers Roman James, Tom Subitis, Ben Summerhayes, and Tyler Ring caught several passes for the Eagles. Cory Cohen became a favorite target for quarterback Jason Kayce during the season as Sharon became a strong passing team. The running duties were carried by Henry Appy and Mike Lannon. Even though the Eagles were smaller than most teams in the Hockomock League, the defense played strong over all. The defensive backfield was led by League All-Stars Jason Kayce and Roman James, as well as Kenny Daddabbo, Kevin Auguste, Ben Summerhayes, and Bobby Sandborn. Henry Appy's outstanding play as linebacker strengthened the middle of the defense along with Graham Johnston, Tom Subitis, and Josh Rotman. Coaches Roland James, Rick Malcolmson, Darryl Ramsey, and Scott Blau motivated the players all year, and new quarterback coach, Matt McGlaughlin, did a fantastic job creating a passing attack for the Eagles. The coaches look forward to working with several returning letterman next year, as the Eagles plan on improving upon its 2002 season.

"For three months we were around our family everyday and we never got sick of 'em. They were the best kids to be teammates with, and, even more importantly, family with."

-Jason Kayce

"Even though we finished the year at 3-7, these players deserve more credit than our record showed. We had some close games against some good teams in the Hockomock league, which is one of the best leagues in the state."

-Coach Matt McLaughlin

This year the Eagles were led by senior tri-captains Danielle Costello, Suzanne Schwartz, and Shante West. Following the leadership that these three girls provided for the team, the Eagles proved to be very competitive in the tough Hockomock League. The team had valuable contributions from juniors Mallory Frers and Amy Cohen, sophomores Jenna Cosgrove, Dana Rehnquist, and Erica Snyder and freshman Jenna Silver. The seniors would like to wish all the underclassmen the best of luck in the upcoming years, and they would also like to thank coach Bruce Allman for all his help and dedication to the team.

Nothing But Net

After a slow start to the Boys' Basketball season the varsity team persevered into a Hockomock League powerhouse. Led by seniors Jason Kayce, Jason Oifer, Olton Rosh, Brad Lackey, Chris Ferrara, Greg Wise, and Eric Adjorlolo the Eagles continued their strong work ethic along with the help of the eight underclassmen. Coaches Bruce Jackman and Joel Peckham put in much time and effort to continue the strong Sharon High Basketball tradition.

Through Sleet & Snow

The track and field team had a great season this winter, despite freezing temperatures outside that made it difficult to train. While running outdoors on the snow and ice, as well as inside through the halls and up the stairs, we came together as a team and had a lot of fun. Between snowball fights and running our teachers down in the halls, we trained hard, and it showed in our individual performances. It was a season of dedication and personal bests!

Pinning the win

This year was a rebuilding year for the SHS Wrestling Team. After losing seven seniors last year and having only two seniors this year, we looked to our new wrestlers to "step up". Even with new and young wrestlers, we still had a good season. Both senior captains Adam Feldman and Sam Carver, as well junior captain Josh Wolff had amazing seasons. Our young team was able to give rival Foxboro High School a run for their money. We look forward to being one of the top teams in the state in the next few years with Coach Lucie leading us to victory!

The 2002-2003 SHS Girls' Gymnastic team had an amazing season. Finishing off the year with a 6-1 record, we pulled together and took the Hockomock Champ title! Special thanks to our Coaches Sue Rennie and Lori Cady, who led us to our success. Having a small team brought us together. This experience forged friendships that will last forever, furnished with many great memories. Although many people may have had doubts about our small team, the "magnificent seven" showed their ability, as well as proving that not one person makes up a team. Our team has been led by our two year captains Allison Kublin and Jenna Schlafman, who made both years a fun, learning experience.

p.s. We love you and you will be missed but never forgotten. A.K. & J. S.

Making A Splash

This year's team was led by captains Matt Abrams, Pat Hayden, Leah Heyman, and Rachel McGowan. It was a great season with very hardworking swimmers. Many swimmers "crawled" their way into Sectionals while seasoned divers; Pat Hayden, Lianne Hawes, and Alex Snow "dove" into the Sectionals as well. Swim coach Ed Sharansky and diving coach Bob Bell inspired the team members to be the best they could be and pushed everyone to success.

Les Miserables

This year the Sharon High School Theatre Company hit the ground running with its production of Les Miserables: The School Edition. One of the first groups in the country to perform this show, the Company earned record tickets sales and excellent reviews. With professionally designed sets, months of rehearsals, and costume and set building, nineteenth-century France came alive on the Arthur E. Collins Auditorium stage. By the contributions of the directors, designers, crew members, and over 70 actors, this production made a deep impression into the school's history.

Faculty

At Sharon High, we are lucky enough to have a faculty of amazing teachers. From English to history to math, they inspire us to ask questions and learn. Our teachers teach not only the content of their lesson plans, but also lessons in life. It may not always seem like the students appreciate it, but we do, and we'd like to thank the SHS faculty for not only being our teachers, but for being our friends as well.

Administration

To the Class of 2003

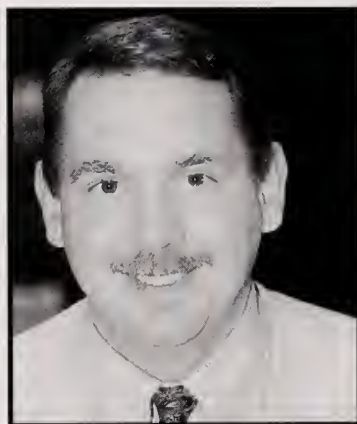

I am pleased to be able to write to the class of 2003, the third class to graduate since I became principal of Sharon High School. If there is one thing I will always associate with your class it is the abbreviation MCAS!

When we first met in August 2000 I had to inform you of the new state-mandated graduation requirement, for yours was the first class that had to successfully pass the English and math MCAS tests. I know many of you were quite apprehensive as to what would happen as a result of the spring test administration-but as I expected the Class of 2003 excelled in the testing! This is indicative of the class performance in the many aspects of SHS life. You have, as a class, established a very positive reputation for achievement in academics, the arts, as well as athletic and extra-curricular activities.

In the future, as you look through the pages of this yearbook, you can not only be proud of what you accomplished as an individual during your years at SHS but also the collective accomplishments of the Class of 2003. As you now leave this institution that has shaped your life in so many positive ways, you should know that your administrators, faculty and staff will miss the Class of 2003; we remain confident that each of you will be successful in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Dr. George S. Anthony

Each year as the graduating class prepares to leave Sharon High School I am swept away by the thought that in ten or fifteen years those of you who are now seniors will become the leaders of tomorrow. You will make decisions that affect us all, you will negotiate business deals and international treaties, you will raise your own children and perhaps, some of you will take our place as teachers. Regardless of the choices you make, I am confident that you have been prepared by the Sharon Public Schools to make good ones, choices that will, over time, make this world you will create, I and commend you all for all you have done to prepare yourself for that great responsibility. Congratulations in advance for the success I know you will enjoy!

On February 13, 1985 God blessed us with our second most precious gift, you Raz.ieh. Ever since, you have been a great source of joy, excitement, and a challenge for us. With hardwork and trust in God, you will achieve the best of your dreams. You have pleased us with your kind heart and positive attitude towards life. You really are one of a kind. We love you sooo much!

Luv- Mom & Dad

Dear Raz.ieh,

I am going to miss you a lot. I am going to miss asking you to drive me everywhere. It will be very quiet without you here at home. I will miss you being very loud on the phone on school nights when I go to sleep. I am going to be happy when I get my own line, don't worry, you can have it back when you come home from college. I am going to miss you making fun of me and putting a smile on my face. I will miss you alot.

Love your lil' sis, Shiren

Rizza,

*You are my motivation, best friend, inspiration, and role model. I do not know where I would be today without you. You have developed me into a more openminded individual and I can not thank you enough for that. I am so proud to be your sister, no matter how crazy life gets with you. **

*There are many things in life that will catch your eye... but only a few will catch your heart! **

Te Amo Chica,

Marizeh (the Mizza)

*Joel,
Good luck in

be the beginning of something wonderful.*

Matthew,

You have brought laughter, love and a brightness into our lives. We are so very proud of the person that you have become.

May your future hold the happiness and success that you so richly deserve.

We love and treasure you.

Mom, Dad, and Casey

Marc,
Congratulations!
Best wishes for a

Dear Rachel,

We are so proud to be your family! You are so so caring and so passionate about life. Here are some thoughts as you leave home and begin to make your own way:

Devote yourself to loving others,
Devote yourself to creating something that gives you purpose and meaning.

Best of Luck to "Class of 2003."

Leslie,
 We watched you grow and dance from a "Little White Duck" into an elegant, sensitive, graceful, and beautiful young woman. From the time you entered our lives, you have entertained us through your many talents and passions. We thank you for all that you have given us! We look forward to watching you follow your dreams and goals in college. Remember, "great dancers are not great because of their techniques; they are great because of their passion."- Martha Graham

Dear Class of 2003,
Because of our observations and intimate knowledge of our son, Adam Miller, we believe that, if he could, he would want to express the following sentiments to his classmates:

For so many reasons you're all greatly responsible for much of my healing, personal growth, and happiness these past 12 years. You've stimulated my mind, made me laugh, included me, defended me, supported me, helped me, and cared for me. You've been compassionate, generous, and accepting. You'll be greatly missed, and never forgotten. Thank you for enriching my life, and may all your dreams come true!

As his parents, we would like to also express our heart-felt gratitude to the graduates, as well as the teaching staff, administration, special education department, transportation department, school nurses, custodians, Karen Bartlett, and Lindsay Pearlstein. Your positive attitudes, open minds, special efforts, and enthusiasm allowed us to break new ground, and give our son a chance to experience many wonderful things he might otherwise have missed. You have truly embraced him as part of our community and that's a priceless gift.

Sincerely,
Sheila and Herb Miller

Things you will never hear in the Theater:

BY THE STAGE MANAGER:

- It looks as though there'll be time for a third dress rehearsal.
- Take your time getting back from break.
- We've been ready for hours.
- No, I called that perfectly the first time, let's move on.
- The headsets are working perfectly.
- The orchestra has no complaints.
- The whole company is standing by whenever you need them..

- That didn't take long.

- No thanks, I don't drink

BY THE DIRECTOR:

- Wow, the designers were right, weren't they?
- No, today is the tech rehearsal, we'll re-work that scene later.

- I think the scene changes are too fast
- Of course I think that we'll be ready in time for opening
- The crew? Why they're just wonderful!
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE DESIGNERS:

- Of course all of my drawings were turned in on time.
- Yes, it is absolutely my fault that the set looks awful.
- You know, you might have a point there.
- The director knows best, obviously I wasn't giving him what he wanted.
- We may have too many gel colours in stock, I can't choose.
- The shop will have the costumes ready on time.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE TECHNICAL DIRECTOR:

- This is the most complete and informative set of drawings I've ever seen.

- We built it right the first time
- No problem, I'll deal with that right away.
- I love designers.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE ACTOR:

- Don't.... Let's not talk about me.
- I really think my big scene should be cut.
- This costume is so comfortable.
- I love my shoes.
- No problem, I can do that myself.
- I have a fantastic agent.
- Let me stand down here with my back to the audience.
- I'm sure someone told me there was a wall down here, I just forgot.
- Without the crew the show would never run - let's thank them.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

BY THE STAGE CREW:

- There's room for that over here.
- We'll get in early tomorrow to do it
- No, no, I'm sure that is our job.
- Anything I can do to help?
- All the tools are carefully locked away.
- Can we do that scene change again, please?
- It's a marvellous show.
- I don't need this many on the crew.
- No thanks, I don't drink.

Things You will always hear from us:

- We are Soooo Proud of you!
- Wherever you go, always come home...
- Whatever you do, we will always be there for you.

THE WAR ON TERRORISM

Over the course of the year, the world's attention focused on a chain of tumultuous terrorist events. In Afghanistan, the Taliban regime fell from power as U.S. troops crippled the al-Qaeda network and cleared caves in search of Osama bin Laden. World-wide, civilians and military personnel fell victim to terrorist bombs and acts of hatred. On the home front, "bioterrorism" became a common term after it was revealed that Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein was producing biological weapons. Hussein's defiance of United Nation's imposed sanctions prompted the United States to seek world support of military action against Iraq. Members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization wrestled over conflicting opinions on the issue, while North Korean leader Kim Jong Il threatened to deploy nuclear weapons if Iraq was attacked. As tensions rose among political leaders, the world watched and waited to see what the next chapter in "The War on Terrorism" would bring.
